

Marcia Collins

*Resiliency Coach / Educational Strategist
Speaker / Writer*

Marcia Collins is a popular, seasoned speaker, trainer and veteran educator, whose mission is to help professionals be resilient, work to live and thrive!

This Louisiana native began her teaching career through humble beginnings as a public charter elementary school-teacher in the Southern part of Dallas, Texas.

Marcia's childhood experiences in school fueled her passion to build a strong literacy foundation for all learners and begin inspiring other educators to do the same. As a result of her personal and professional struggles, Marcia began writing a blog. She quickly discovered journaling, real-time coaching combined with practical resiliency and positive psychology strategies, helped her overcome struggles faster, become more resilient and thrive in her personal and professional life!

Today, Marcia applies the professional coaching and positive psychology training received from CaPP Institute as tools to help professionals be resilient, live to work and thrive! In addition, these tools also uncover challenges and improve instructional purposes and builds student academic success! Asking the right questions lead to the getting right answers that move you FORWARD toward your purpose.

In her free time, Marcia loves reading, traveling and networking with like minds. She lives in Dallas, Texas with her husband and three children.

WHAT CLIENTS ARE SAYING ABOUT MARCIA

“I’d never considered pursuing a Master’s Degree; but after much coaching and encouragement from Coach Marcia Collins, I can see a Master’s Degree as an attainable possibility. I highly recommend Mrs. Marcia Collins as a coach. I have found Ms. Collins to be very positive and professional in the workplace. She has an upbeat personality and really listens to me during our coaching sessions, and knows how to turn negative situations into positive ones. I have had the pleasure of working with Mrs. Collins for two years. She was very accommodating when I first came to the workplace. She was the one who inspired me to believe that I could pursue and attain a Master’s Degree. Since our coaching sessions, I have been encouraged to dream, hope and believe for greater successes both personally and professionally. “

D. Washington, 1st year teacher coaching client

“Marcia Collins is passionate about helping people discover their purpose. I’ve had a mini session with her and during the session she listened well, and helped me to develop a solution. I highly recommend Marcia for coaching. Very energetic and engaging!”

Gloria M. Pelcher, Writer/Publisher/Photographer/Teacher

“As a professional, Coach Marcia was very knowledgeable, well organized and authentic toward my coaching problems. In addition, she was able to bring out the best to me as my coach. She helped me to see my faults, and enabled me to grow as a person. Also, she was able to give me strategies to help strengthen me well-round professional/business woman. I strongly recommend Coach Marcia. Why? I recommend Coach Marcia, because she is able to help you realize what is holding you back both personally and professionally to obtain your goals.”

WHAT AUDIENCES ARE SAYING ABOUT MARCIA

“Marcia is one of the most passionate, committed, and enthusiastic educators I have ever had the pleasure of working with. She has continually amazed me with her tremendous energy and passion for working with students, educators, and administrators to build resiliency and increase student achievement. Using both her direct experience in the classroom and cutting-edge research in education and psychology as a basis for her offerings as a speaker, trainer, coach, and consultant, Marcia understands what students and educators need, and she evokes transformation with her charismatic style.”

M. Rothouse-Writing Coach-Business owner/adjunct professor

“Marcia has a passion for teaching students and fostering their creativity. She is very detailed oriented in her work and her lesson plans and style of teaching make the students want to learn. She sets a guide for other teachers and administrators to follow. I highly recommend her in any capacity for teaching, or consulting work.”
